This lovely hotel in the Sacred Valley of the Inca will let you enjoy the pleasure to wake up rested. The hotel has a Jacuzzi, a beautiful garden with hammocks and swing seats, sauna, spa, meditation room and a living room with television. The hotel is located in Urubamba, center of the sacred valley of the Incas, 10 minutes away for the train station going directly to Machu Picchu Everyday, and 2 blocks away for the bus terminal, where you can take transportation to touristic places like archeological ruins, indigenous markets of Pisac and Chinchero, cave paintings of Chahuaytire in Pisac and Yucaj, salt mines of Maras and the only living city Inca Ollantaytambo. The hotel rooms have internet wifi, TV with cable private bathroom with hairdryer, hot water, phone and cleaning service.

The hotel is built with wood, chonta of the jungle, spectacular quartz, that in the Andean tradition are used to eliminate the negative energies and offer a pleasant rest. We have added heaters to this hotel in the late year of 2019, did some renovations of so.

Every morning breakfast is served in the restaurant with reservation for dining in for the guests convenience.
