The Hotel-restaurant is located in the heart of Macedonia, near by the most picturesque canyon in the Balkan peninsula, the Demir Kapija Canyon, this property is created with tons of love and care for nature lovers, alpinists and enthusiasts for flora and fauna in this area. Whitehead eagles are the trademark of this landmark. Few famous alpinists became residents of Demir Kapija because of the conditions for training in the famous rocky canyon. Beautiful wine yards and famous local family wineries in the close neighborhood region on 5 minutes walking, are also reason more to become owner of this beautiful property. Near by the hotel, there are fields of lavender that are worth the visit, especially photogenic in the blooming season.

The hotel is suited by the E75 highway, especially frequented during the summer period with tourists who travel to Greece currently rated as the world's most famous tourist destination. The location of the hotel is usually on halfway for tourists from European countries such as Romania, Hungary, Poland, Slovenia, Austria, Italy. Literally, every single car that is traveling to Greece shall pass by the property.

90 to 95 % occupation of hotel rooms and the restaurant from May to October is guaranteed. Till now, families with children have beautiful memories, a lot of them are coming back and extending their reservations for one or two more nights. Around 50% the rest of the year

One hour's drive by car and you get to Thessaloniki and Chalkidiki in Greece, and also one hour drive will get you in Skopje, the Capital of Macedonia.
